

About Us

South Lawrence Economic Development Association (SLEDA) is a non--profit organization dedicated to providing economic growth for South Lawrence County by fostering and encouraging responsible economic and community development activities.

We are funded by private investors and the cities of Loretto and St. Joseph, Tennessee.

